

INSTRUCTIONS

After studying each lesson and all the Scripture verses mentioned, you should consider the exam questions.

Each exam consists of 10 questions. There are five statements that can be either true or false. Read carefully and thoughtfully and decide if the lesson and the verses given are in agreement with the statement. On the short line near the margin to the right, you should write TRUE if the statement is correct or write FALSE if it is not correct.

Questions 6-10 have three possible answers, but only one of these three is correct. Read the answers with care and choose the best. The answers are indicated by “a”, “b” or “c”. Write the correct or best answer on the short line near the margin to the right.

The following is an example of how to respond to this type of answer.

The Sea of Galilee was a

- (a) sea with very few people near it
- (b) place that is not mentioned in the Bible
- (c) a good place for fishing

If you have studied the first lesson, you will know that statements “a” and “b” are not correct and that “c” is the correct answer.

When you have finished the 10 exams of this course, send only the exams to the address indicated below. We will grade your exams and send you the next course in this series.
